

God did not abandoned us

Wherever you go, wherever you are, you'll take yourself with you, your regrets, your fragility and most of all your tribulations, the Cross of life is always ready waiting even when you try to escape by going to enjoy. This is the world we have to live and operate: full of injustice and spiteful acts of any kind. Only God has the strength to change the heart of men and women, do not forget through that He always respects what each and everyone of us wants. He then can change only the heart of men and women of good will. The great change that politics wants to do, are only a formulation, different from the present one, formulation, different from the present one., the same wicked deeds, that dominate the Nations since the beginning of capitalism. Therefore they're changing the form, but the contents remain identical to the previous one. One popular saying mentions: once the law is done, the deception is found. The civil law does not teach anyone to be good, because they are not, based on the principle of justice and morality that God gave to men. Every time something serious is happening, no one thinks that the goodness social justice is lacking. The only thing they do is to increase the forces of the police, the prisons bare full of prisoner and the arrests are following fast. During a visit to the prisoners, a young convicted man to a several years of prison, which I suggested to change life ones free, reply: they catch me because I was stupid, when I'm getting out from here I will be more careful and you'll see they will not catch me any more. The wickedness of men and women that refused Christianity, has become so great that we do not have any other choice: or accepting the tribulation with tight teeth awaiting for the intervention of God, or we let ourselves carrying away and whirlpool of a life without hope. The solution of our problem comes to us from the word of God. St. Paul in the letter that wrote to the church of Rome, says that we will be saved from the chaos of the world, only if we will let arise in us the hope that God will not abandon us. Today God gives us the strength to endure the great tribulation that the capitalism in crisis are distributing abundantly. The day He established. He will pull us out of the bustle and will take us in a place where no one will make us suffer any more. The hope which is seen is not hope. Wait for with patience for what you do not see and shall see that God did not lied. (Rm. 8.24). The patience put in exercise the desire, the desire give life to faith, faith takes you to put in practice what God had said. "Whoever hope in the risen Christ.

And everyone who has this hope on Him cleanses himself just as He is pure" (GV. 3,3). He'll help make you pure, will not destroy the free arbitrary act. Will help you will all humanity. But He will do this only if you want, if you want you have to ask with the, conversion of your life. The first gift that the Grace of the Holy Spirit wants to offer, is the uniform mood. In front of the tribulation that shakes your existence and that of your family, the serenity of your soul will remain steady if you receive this gift of God. Nothing can crumble your faith, and even the hope that God is waiting that the Lord will remember you and your pain. So to receive the uniform love, is necessary that is founded on the risen Christ, only He remain steady in his eternity. The stability in Christ consists in the faithful perseverance of life that building up every day on the formation of the Christianity. You will have to sink his roots in all He words that God left in the world. The faith that remain fixed in Christ in the tempest that upsetting your life, generates love. If you want the uniform love, you have to have the steady love to the will of God. All the events, persons, adversity and difficulties, are always inferior to the strength that the love to Christ gives you. The uniform love is based on the steady, love. The steady love can only be the love to Christ. The love to Christ born from the faithfulness to the word of God. When you are obedient to what the Gospel is teaching you, and you obey in a steady way, your life sinks in the principle of Christianity. All happy and sad events of everyday, will not ruin, will not prevent to be serene and trust worthy. The consequence of the steady Christian love is this: nothing will harm you, that is nothing will make loose your peace the calm, the joy to have become the child of God. All the events of this world have to be considered in the optical of the will of God, in the sense that God allow that men and women creates the moral and civil chaos for the reason that only Him knows. Of course God for the evil that we are doing obtain always the well been for us and the life of the world. Remain always master of yourself, sure to have God with you, this because you are always deeply rooted in the will of God. Iff God permits that things go bad, have for sure a reason of justice to complete. The gloominess of the events of these days are useful to God for taking to the heart of each and every men and each women so that He have the opportunity to make feel His presence, and to put forward His proposal of salvation, I am sure that many begins to understand.
