

I have got the power to give and to take back my life

The one which wants to listen the mysterious voice of the Holy Spirit that, in the intimacy of the heart, the conceal sense of the Word of God, has to shut the door of the feelings. The passions that drags you towards the people and things that attract the heart so that it will be filled with confusion and remorse. When you are gather in prayer and all around you is quite, surface at once in you conscious the failing of the duty that have been not fulfilled. The silence in pray, will manifest to you the fragility of your existence, the future uncertainty and comparison for who you are and who you should be. The Holy Spirit whisper in your trouble heart: do not be afraid, I am you salvation (ps. 34, 3). The peace that hope is giving, becomes for you the strength so to continue to persevere in the difficult walking of conversion. The divine life that you see developing within you existence, will fill you with joy and gives you the strength not to be afraid of temptation and not to tremble in front of sacrifice and difficulties. Watch then the difference between the attracted things of the world that pass away and sink into nothing, and the wonderful reality of Heaven, when a place was prepared even for you. You will understand way St, Francis praised God for every thing and did thank Him for the gift of hope: is so great the good that I expect, that each pain is my delight. Is true that the creature gives you some consolation, is also true that they are expecting from you much more from what you are receiving from them. The experience of the sin that you committed revealed to you that at the end will remain only the bitterness of the disappointment. Do not be attached to the things that pass with you, try, rather to be faithful to Christ Risen from the dead. He created you and wants to give you the joy of a life without any pain and death. Feed my sheep, said the Lord to Peter. The sacrifice that erase the sins of the world, it was consumed on Calvary. For three days He rested in the heart of the earth, tomorrow at dawn He will raise from the dead. Before He wanted to die gave the Eucharist, and wants to remain with us so to talk more to our hearts. Even to you He says what told Peter: try to do to my brothers and sisters what I had done to you. Do not hesitate to sacrifice your existence on earth to give to the world the testimony of faith in your daily life. Live your convincing in a clean and clear way, to make know those who are a burden around your existence that: I was dead, but know I am Raised. I want to communicate to all men and all women of good will that I opened the doors of the Kingdom of Heaven. I want everyone to believe in me in order that they can enter. Satan stir up all the strength of hell to kill Christ and eliminate Him from the face of the earth. He knew that the Messiah would take away the dominion from all men and of all women that are refusing the gift of the joy of the flash in exchange of the pain of hell. "What's between you and us, Jesus of Nazareth? I know who you are, you are the Son of God, go away did you come to ruin us?", Yelled Satan that was talking to a possessed. The Risen Jesus defeated death, He destroy the ancient condemnation that God pronounced to Adam and Eve: If you enjoy the pleasure that I prohibited to enjoy, you will die. Death is the punishment of the sin and Jesus from His Father had the gift from which He Himself is talking: I have the power to hand over my life to death and to take it back again (GV. 10, 17,18). The witnesses were those whom stayed under the Cross until the end: His mother, St, John and Mary Magdalene that was a prostitute. When He Raised, He didn't call His Mother nor John to announce to the world His Resurrection. He sand a prostitute, He choose a woman lost in the abyss of sin, to say to all those whom are lie in sin and in the shadow of death" is risen, I saw Him and He made me raise from my sins and gave me the hope to go and find Him in Heaven. "Go and tell my brothers that I am waiting in Galilee " Mary, the prostitute, the lost woman, came even to you and is assuring that Jesus is Risen and is waiting in the confessional were He wants to give you the forgiveness of sin the Resurrection of your soul and the hope that He Himself will guide you for the path that takes you in Heaven.

Don Vincenzo.

Translation from Italian version by Rita Gallo.